JULIAN APPLE HARVEST TOUR

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 2018

JULIAN: THE APPLE CAPITAL OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY

Crisp cool nights and graciously warm sunny days herald the coming of fall as apple and pear harvests begin. The leaves grow golden, breezes quicken and the cider presses begin turning just-picked apples into fresh squeezed juice! The afternoon is free to wander about the small streets of the quaint turn-of-the-century mining town. You'll discover charming hand-craft shops, boutiques, country inns, and the Julian Pioneer Museum. Don't miss taking a peek inside the historic 1897 Julian Hotel and the Julian Drug Store with its old-fashioned soda fountain, which still serves sparkling sarsaparilla. And in the fall, you'll find apple barns brimming with fresh-picked apples, just-made jellies, apple pie and more. And if you want to take a pie home, be sure to stop in at the Julian Pie Company to pick up one of the best homemade apple pies you'll ever eat.
