

Leonis Adobe with lunch at the Sagebrush Cantina

GUIDED TOUR OF THE LEONIS ADOBE

Return to 1880s California as you walk through one of the oldest residences in Los Angeles County. The fully restored and furnished Monterey-style adobe of the “King of Calabasas,” Miguel Leonis is a functioning ranch. You’ll learn about Leonis and his Chumash Native American common law wife, Espiritu Chijulla Leonis. You’ll also feed animals authentic to the period including Merino sheep, Angora and Nubian goats, and chickens. This icon in the history of Los Angeles historic preservation is a must see for anyone interested in San Fernando Valley, Old LA or California history.
