This is a one-of-a-kind exhibition that you and your group do not want to miss! Experience history through the eyes of an FBI agent! Come see FBI: From Al Capone to Al Qaeda at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum. A brand-new 11,000 square foot exhibition which covers the history of the storied agency from inception to its modern day efforts to fight domestic terrorism in the United States. This is the first time that many of these remarkable, historic artifacts and criminal evidence have been on public display together. The exhibition will highlight: the FBI's beginnings, the Making of an Agent, the FBI's Top 10 Most Wanted Lists, Major Cases, the Changing Face of the FBI, FBI in Film and Pop Culture and Wall of Honor. The major cases will showcase stories and evidence from some of the FBI's top cases, including Al Capone, John Dillinger, the DC Beltway Snipers, the Mafia, the Unabomber and 9/11. Artifacts on display include the bullet-ridden car in which Bonnie and Clyde met their fate, John Dillinger's death mask, the raft and paddle used in the only escape from Alcatraz, Donnie Brasco's undercover documents, trial evidence from the DC Beltway sniper case and much more. You will have plenty of time to explore the permanent exhibits and the gift shop at the Library.
