to the Ahmanson Theatre

May 3 - June 9, 2012

About Sondheim's "Follies":

When former members of the "Weismann Follies" reunite on the eve of their theatre's demolition, two couples remember their past and face the harsher realities of the present. Reminiscing about their younger selves and the years gone by, the crumbling theatre brings back memories for both couples of good times and bad. Containing such well-known songs as "Broadway Baby," "I'm Still Here," "Too Many Mornings," "Could I Leave You?" and "Losing My Mind," Follies" echoes the songs, exuberance and romance of the vaudeville days between the two World Wars. With an extraordinary 28-piece orchestra, "Follies" features one of the largest casts (forty-one) ever to appear on the Ahmanson stage.
