New England and Eastern Canada Fall Foliage Tour

October 5-16, 2010

Itinerary

DAY 1 – Tuesday – October 5, 2010 – Tour participants will arrive in Niagara Falls, Ontario via their own travel arrangements. On arrival in Niagara Falls you'll check in at the Sheraton Fallsview Hotel for our first 2-night stay. The hotel is located 200 yards from the edge of the falls near the 325-foot Minolta Konica Tower and numerous other attractions and restaurants.

DAY 2 – Wednesday – October 6, 2010 – Enjoy a full buffet breakfast at the hotel before meeting our motorcoach and driver. We'll also be met at the coach in front of the hotel by a local step-on guide for a morning tour of the Niagara Falls area. The tour will include a visit and information about the falls, The Niagara Gorge, The Niagara Power Plant and a short scenic drive to Niagara-On-The-Lake located on the shores of Lake Ontario with a stop to view the famous Floral Clock. The tour will conclude at lunchtime back at the hotel. The afternoon is free to enjoy the numerous attractions including the Minolta Konica Tower observation deck and restaurant, the Maid of the Mist boat ride to the foot of the falls and the Journey Behind The Falls and so much more! Tonight we'll head out for an entertaining evening at the Oh Canada Eh? Dinner Theater. (B-D)

DAY 3 – Thursday – October 7, 2010 – Following breakfast we'll travel around the western tip of Lake Ontario to Toronto. After a break for lunch we'll be joined by a local guide for a tour of this Canadian business metropolis. You'll drive past City Hall, through the extensive Chinatown and along the Lake Ontario Waterfront. Our guided tour will end with a ride to the top of the 1,815-foot CN Tower, among the world's tallest free-standing structures. Toronto is one of the top centers of theatre, after London and New York. This evening you may want to catch a local performance of your favorite Broadway show. Our hotel, the Courtyard by Marriott-Toronto, is located near the Eaton Center Shopping Mall with numerous downtown restaurants located nearby. (B)

DAY 4 – Friday – October 8, 2010 – After breakfast at the hotel this morning we'll head toward the beautiful "1000 Islands Region." On arrival in Kingston we'll step aboard the 1000 Island Cruise' Island Queen for a 3-hour "Heart of the Islands" lunch cruise into the St. Lawrence River. The tour cruises around small cottage islands and grand estates. After the cruise we'll continue to our hotel for tonight, the Courtyard by Marriott in downtown Ottawa. The hotel is located in downtown Ottawa's historic Byward Market amidst over 130 restaurants, cafés, bistros and night clubs, all within a four-block radius. (B-L)

DAY 5 – Saturday – October 9, 2010 – Breakfast at the hotel, then we'll check out and be joined by another local guide for a tour of Canada's Capital city. Because of the weekend many of the city's official buildings will be closed but our tour will include views of the Parliament Building, a drive along the Rideau Canal and numerous other prominent sites. Following our morning tour we'll head for Quebec's largest city, Montreal. Montreal is also the world's second-largest French-speaking city, after Paris. On arrival in Montreal we'll check in at the Novotel Montreal Center for another 2-night stay. The hotel is located near the heart of downtown Montreal within walking distance for shopping and dining along "main street" Rue St Catherine (with metro station and under-city mall). It is very close to the restaurants along Rue de Cresant and near three Irish pubs! (B)

DAY 6 – Sunday – October 10, 2010 – After breakfast we'll be joined by a local guide for a tour of this bilingual multicultural city with its throng of ethnic communities, Italian and Jewish being the most obvious. Our guided tour will include stops at Mount Royal Park, Old Montreal and the Basilica of Notre-Dame, among the most magnificent of French-Canadian churches and one of the largest in North America. There will be time following the tour to visit favorite attractions on your own and dine again at one of the numerous restaurants for which the city is famous. (B)

DAY 7 – Monday – October 11, 2010 – Today enjoy breakfast and then board the motorcoach for the morning drive to romantic Quebec, the only walled city in North America. This afternoon we'll enjoy a guided walking tour of the "Old Capital." Most of the historic section of Old Quebec is located within the walls of Upper Town. Famous sites include Artillery Park National Historic Site of Canada, The Citadel, Dufferin Terrace with a spectacular view of Old Lower Town and the St. Lawrence River, Le Chateau Frontenac and Our Lady Of Quebec Basilica-Cathedral and many others. Following our tour we'll check in at our hotel for the next 2 nights, the beautiful 4-star Manoir Victoria, located in the heart of Old Quebec. Enjoy the special ambiance at the 17th Century heart of this essentially European City. (B)

DAY 8 – Tuesday – October 12, 2010 – Today is free to enjoy at your leisure! Meals are intentionally omitted so you can enjoy the varieties of fare available throughout Upper and Lower Quebec. Get up at your leisure. Return to the room when you wish and just enjoy immersing yourself in the sites of this unique city.

DAY 9 – Wednesday – October 13, 2010 – Today we'll head back toward the United States border and the Green Mountain state of Vermont. We'll stop just inside the Vermont border at the community of Newport on the shores of Lake Memphremagog, whose name is derived from an Abenaki Indian word meaning "beautiful waters." Following lunch we'll tour our way south along Route 100 through the small mountain villages situated among the Green Mountains to Morrisville and our hotel for tonight, the Sunset Motor Inn. (B)

DAY 10 – Thursday – October 14, 2010 – Enjoy breakfast before heading out to enjoy more of Vermont's spectacular beauty. We'll travel south along Route 100 at the edge of the Green Mountains toward Rutland with a short stop in Stowe Village. This historic, picture-perfect New England village, complete with white-steepled church, is nestled beside 4,393-foot Mt. Mansfield, the highest mountain in Vermont. The Von Trapps of "Sound of Music" fame located in Stowe in the 1940's and the family still operates a ski lodge on the face of Mt. Mansfield. We'll also stop in at the Cold Hollow Cider Mill and Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Factory in Waterbury. From Rutland we'll take Route 7, the Ethan Allen Highway south through the center of the Green Mountains to Bennington, Vermont. We'll stop off at the Bennington Battle Monument, the tallest battle monument in the world when it was completed in 1889 and still the tallest in Vermont. Our hotel for tonight is the Hampton Inn-Bennington. (B)

DAY 11 – Friday – October 15, 2010 – Following the popular Hampton Inn buffet breakfast we'll head east to Brattleboro, Vermont and then south and east toward Boston. Our hotel for tonight is the Westin Waltham-Boston in Waltham. We'll stop off at the hotel and drop the luggage before heading on in to Boston for our afternoon guided tour. Boston has been dubbed "The Cradle of Modern America" and today we'll see as many of the landmarks and historic locations as possible. We'll end the tour at Faneuil Hall Marketplace where you'll find more than 60 Boston shops, boutiques and restaurants. The historic Union Oyster House and Durgan Park Restaurant are both located near the Marketplace if you'd like to try traditional Boston fare served at this location since 1826. Following dinner we'll return to our hotel in Waltham for the final stay of our tour. (B)

DAY 12 – Saturday – October 16, 2010 – The Westin buffet breakfast is included this morning prior to checkout. Most non-stop flights to the west coast depart in the late afternoon so we may be able to do a bit more sight-seeing en route to the airport today. That depends on the flight schedules of tour members. Your transfer to Logan International Airport is included in the afternoon. (B)
