

9-Day Celebration in Mexico City and Oaxaca

October 26 - November 3, 2026

Journey deep into the heart of Mexico on an unforgettable adventure that culminates in the magic of Día de los Muertos. From the lively streets of Mexico City, where ancient and modern worlds collide, to the awe-inspiring pyramids of Teotihuacán and the colonial charm of Puebla, each step unveils a new layer of history and culture. As the road winds into Oaxaca, the soul of Mexico comes alive—markets buzz with the scent of mole and mezcal, artisans shape black pottery and Alebrijes, and the air hums with the anticipation of the sacred celebration ahead. Then, as night falls, step into a world where the veil between the living and the dead dissolves—candles flicker in the Panteón Viejo, marigolds glow under the moonlight, and families gather to honor their ancestors with music, laughter, and remembrance. This is more than a tour; it's an immersion into the rhythms of Mexico, where every bite, every story, and every moment weaves into an experience as timeless as the spirits that dance through the night.
