

MALIBU: From the Canyon to the Coast

FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 2023

In a place as big as Southern California there are hidden gems all around you if you know where to look. One such place is less than an hour from Los Angeles and is the world's largest urban national park, the Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area. The slopes that run down to the Pacific Ocean are covered in chaparral, coastal sage, and oak and sycamore forests, and the park is a haven for hiking, wildflower viewing and bird watching. It was also the home to classic movies such as "How Green Was My Valley" and "Planet of the Apes" and legendary television shows like "The Rifleman" and "M*A*S*H." Because of its proximity to one of the most beautiful stretches of coast in the country, you can start your day taking in stunning views at elevation and end it at the beach, watching the sun reflect off of the deep blue waters as the waves roll in to the shore. Come experience and explore with us as we go from the canyons to the coast.

MALIBU CANYON

The day begins with a stop at the Santa Monica Mountains Visitors Center and King Gillette Ranch, where the broad meadows and low ridge lines serve as a wildlife corridor in the geographic center of the mountain range. Formerly the horse stable for the Gillette Mansion, the refurbished visitors center features a gift shop and bookstore. From there, you'll head to the Malibu Hindu Temple in Calabasas, the largest such temple on the west coast. Built of marble and white brick in the traditional South Indian style, the temple offers a picturesque glimpse into another culture.

TIME FOR LUNCH IN MALIBU

After winding your way through the scenic Malibu Canyon, the road opens up to expansive view of the Pacific Ocean. A stop for lunch on your own will be made at the Malibu Country Mart where there is everything from quick bites to full service restaurants to choose from.

THE GETTY VILLA

The Getty Villa houses the J. Paul Getty Museum's collection of approximately 44,000 Greek, Roman, and Etruscan antiquities. With objects dating from 6,500 B.C. to A.D. 400, the collection contains monumental sculptures as well as artifacts of everyday life such as vases, coins, sculpture, and jewelry. Guests can enrich their visit by downloading the GettyGuide app onto your mobile device to hear commentary from curators and conservators about selected works of art on view (you'll also need to bring your own headphones).
