

Auschwitz

Not long ago. Not far away.

A very special exhibit at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library with a BBQ Buffet Lunch at the Library THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 2024

For the first time in history, an exhibition co-produced by the Auschwitz-Birkenau State Museum and Spanish company Musealia is traveling to the main capital cities of the world to show an extraordinary collection of more than 700 original exhibits of inestimable historic and human value, that bears direct witness to one of the darkest chapters of humankind.

Small personal belongings from some of the victims, structural elements from the huge camp, documents and unpublished audio-visual materials make up a rigorous and moving tour with a clear goal – knowing first-hand how such a place could come into existence and what were its terrible consequences. An unforgettable reflection on the very nature of the human being and the complex reality of Auschwitz, the universe shared by victims and perpetrators.

Artifacts on display include hundreds of personal items - such as suitcases, eyeglasses, and shoes that belonged to survivors and victims of Auschwitz. Other artifacts include concrete posts that were part of the fence of the Auschwitz II-Birkenau camp; fragments of an original barrack for prisoners in the Auschwitz III-Monowitz camp, a desk and other possessions of the first and the longest serving Auschwitz commandant Rudolf Höss, a gas mask used by the SS, and an original Model 2 freight train car used for the deportation of Jews to the ghettos and extermination camps in German-occupied Poland.

TOUR OF THE REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY

Not only will you experience the special Auschwitz exhibit, but you'll also explore the permanent collection at the Reagan Presidential Library. On this guided tour, you'll relive the events that shaped history during Reagan's eight years in the White House. You'll share President Reagan's dream and learn how he led America toward it. The state-of-the-art museum takes you from Reagan's early years to his time spent as a world leader.
