A BITE OF HISTORY

HISTORY AND FOOD TOUR WITH CURT TUCKER AS OUR GUIDE

Get a taste of L.A. on this food-themed adventure that will excite your taste buds as we explore the history, culture and cuisine of a number of neighborhoods. We'll visit Pasadena, Eagle Rock, the Hollywood Hills, Burbank and North Hollywood with a chance to learn some local history and taste some amazing food along the way. In Pasadena, we will see the early 1900s-era Arts & Crafts period homes in Bungalow Heaven, as well as the architecturally significant and historic Pasadena City Hall. We will also stop for a treat at a wonderful bakery where locals line up every day to choose from more than 70 different bread varieties and mouth-watering pastries. In Eagle Rock, we'll visit a family-owned Thai restaurant to sample their delicious Chicken Satay and signature "Blanket Shrimp." The journey continues with a stop in the Hollywood Hills to see the highly acclaimed Birth of Liberty mosaic that's composed of ten million pieces of Venetian glass. Next stop is the Smoke House Restaurant in Burbank. Built in 1946 adjacent to Warner Bros. Studio, this legendary restaurant is still frequented by movie stars. Here, you'll be treated to one of their incredible sandwiches and famous cheese bread. For dessert, we're off to the iconic post war coffee shop, Bob's Big Boy, where you'll be treated to Bob's Classic Hot Fudge Ice Cream cake. Finally, we'll stop off at the Television Academy in North Hollywood to visit the statue garden to see some famous television celebrities depicted in bronze.
