ALL DAY GUIDED TOUR ALONG ROUTE 66

U.S. Highway 66 -- popularly known as Route 66 or the Mother Road -- holds a special place in American consciousness and evokes images of simpler times, mom and pop businesses, and the icons of a mobile nation on the road. On our drive on Route 66 travel through the towns of Victorville, San Bernardino, Rancho Cucamonga, Upland, and Glendora and take the time to stop and experience some of the mom 'n pop businesses that made Route 66 the Main Street of America. We start our journey in historic Old Town Victorville where we will enjoy a self-guided tour of the California Route 66 Museum, which is devoted to the westernmost portion of the historic highway and complete with signs and memorabilia from different periods of the road's history. This fun and interactive museum is full of nostalgia, complete with a 1950s style diner booth, a VW Love Bus, a 1917 Model T Ford and more. Next, it's off to an included lunch at the Cracker Barrel Old Country Store Restaurant. Dining at a Cracker Barrel is more than just eating -- it's an experience. Look no further than the country gift shop at the entrance and the rocking chairs on the front porch for proof positive. After lunch we will travel Route 66 to San Bernardino where we will see the site of the original McDonalds. We will also see the historic California Theater, the iconic Wigwam Hotel, a vintage 1920's service station and we will even have time to shop and taste some wine at a historic Rancho Cucamonga winery. There will be surprises along the way, so come "get your kicks on Route 66.
