SEA OF FLOWERS

THE FLOWER FIELDS AT CARLSBAD RANCH

As you approach, you'll see thousands of ranunculus plants covering the hillside above the Pacific shoreline. Separated into ribbon-like bands of color, the blooms create a "sea of flowers." At the ranch, you'll climb aboard a tractor-drawn wagon for a narrated ride that includes a history of the Flower Fields, information about the planting process and growing cycle, and a description of the variety of flowers grown. There are also two "Picture Paths" which allow visitors to walk into the field to take photographs. You'll have time after the tour to visit the Armstrong Garden Center and gift shop where you can purchase fresh cut flowers, plants, bulbs and a variety of specialty garden items.

LUNCH AT HUNTER STEAKHOUSE
