THE GETTY CENTER AND LAWRY'S

THE GETTY CENTER

Your experience at the Getty Center begins with a tram ride to the summit, taking in unexpected views of the historic Sepulveda Pass. Arriving at the central plaza, you'll be surrounded by gardens, terraces and dramatic architecture. Italian travertine stone imparts a timeless quality to the Getty Center's buildings, while glass and curved metal panels lend an open, contemporary air. You'll start your visit at the Information Desk in the entrance pavilion. Here, you can watch a brief orientation film and learn about the day's programs and exhibitions. From there, you are free to experience all the Getty has to offer at your own pace. You'll see paintings by many of the most familiar masters – Rembrandt, Goya, Monet and Cezanne, to name a few. You'll also discover one of the greatest collections of drawings by such artists as Michelangelo and Degas. From the museum's terraces and walkways, visitors encounter breathtaking views of the nearby Santa Monica Mountains and the snow-capped San Gabriels, downtown skyscrapers, the Palos Verdes peninsula and Catalina Island.
