OLD HAUNTS in OLD TOWN SAN DIEGO

THE HAUNTED WHALEY HOUSE MUSEUM

The Whaley House stands today as a classic example of mid-nineteenth century Greek Revival architecture. Significant events, such as the suicide of Violet Whaley in 1885 and the hangings which occurred on the property before the house was constructed, have suffused the Whaley House with an air of mystery making it more than just California State Historic Landmark #65. According to the Travel Channel's "America's Most Haunted," the house is the number one most haunted house in the United States.

THE OLD ADOBE CHAPEL

Originally built in 1850 as a home, the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception, better known as the Old Adobe Chapel, was converted to a church by Don José Aguirre in 1858.

TIME FOR LUNCH AND SHOPPING IN OLD TOWN

While regional and Mexican specialties are not to be missed and present many cooking styles, visitors to Old Town have a wide choice of cuisines. The area has a history rich in diversity so you can also find early California fare along with Italian, Japanese, Creole, Peruvian, and some really great seafood. There is something for every appetite and budget and every doorway leads to a delectable discovery. You'll also have an opportunity to shop for Mexican imports at the Bazaar del Mundo and the Old Town Market, or visit the historic sites dating back to the beginning of California history.
