ETHNIC L.A.

TOUR L.A.'S ETHNIC NEIGHBORHOODS

One of the greatest things about living in Southern California is that you can travel around the world without ever getting on an airplane. Like many big cities, Los Angeles has its share of ethnic pockets where those from far off lands congregate to live and eat. On this fun tour, you'll be joined by a guide for the day as you set out to explore the many cultures that make up the "City of Angels." You'll take a drive through Chinatown, see the thriving Japanese community of Little Tokyo and stop off for a taste of Mexico at Olvera Street. You'll also pass through the West Adams area, including a drive past Hattie McDaniel's home.

ST. SOPHIA'S GREEK ORTHODOX CATHEDRAL

This Byzantine cathedral was completed in 1952 and is considered by many to be one of the most beautiful in the Western hemisphere. A representative from the church will be on hand to guide you through the church and introduce you to its history and architecture.

OLVERA STREET, "THE BIRTHPLACE OF L.A."

As you stroll the block-long brick-lined marketplace you'll find historic structures, painted stalls, street vendors, cafes, restaurants and import shops offering handcrafted items such as pottery, belts, wallets, purses, leather and Mexican folk art. Lunch options abound including the ever-present taquitos and tacos at the outdoor cafes, and full menus at some of the larger restaurants.

THIS TOUR IS GUIDED BY JOHN DAUGHERTY, THE MAN WHO KNOWS EVERYTHING THERE IS TO KNOW ABOUT LOS ANGELES!
