HUNTINGTON LIBRARY AND GARDENS

HUNTINGTON LIBRARY AND GARDENS

The Huntington is an oasis of art and culture set amidst 150 acres of breathtaking gardens. The Gallery contains the most comprehensive collection of British 18th and 19th century art outside of London. And aside from the beauty you'll find inside the Huntington Library, the outside is just as pretty. The gardens are enormous – 130 acres with 14,000 varieties of trees and plants. It is home to the largest public collection of camellias and azaleas in the world, and the Rose Garden with more than 1,200 varieties.

FREE TIME FOR LUNCH AT THE HUNTINGTON

From quick snacks to leisurely meals with breathtaking views, The Huntington offers five dining options including high tea at the Rose Garden Tea Room, brick-oven pizzas, pasta, salads, soups, and sandwiches, at The Café, and Asian specialties at the Chinese Garden Tea House. Please note that reservations are required for the Rose Garden Tea Room.
