IN WALT'S FOOTSTEPS

IN WALT'S FOOTSTEPS GUIDED TOUR

Take a walk with us in the footsteps of Walt Disney as we take you to some of his favorite places outside of Disneyland. He moved to California in the early 1920s and famously got his start in the Los Feliz neighborhood, tinkering on his animations in the garage of his uncle's Craftsman bungalow. Shortly thereafter, he and his brother Roy set up the Disney Brothers Studio where he developed the character Mickey Mouse. Needless to say, the rest is history! On this fascinating look at the man behind the mouse, you'll visit a number of places made famous by Mr. Disney.

Tour highlights (routing and stops may vary):

- Walt's uncles house in Los Feliz
- Kingswell Studios, known as the first Disney studio
- Walt's Los Feliz estate
- Step inside the Carolwood Barn where Walt built a small steam railroad
- Walt Disney Studios in Burbank
- The Walt Disney Concert Hall

BRUNCH AT WALT'S FAVORITE RESTAURANT

Enjoy Sunday brunch at Walt's favorite restaurant, The Tam O' Shanter. He was a regular at the restaurant which was a stone's throw away from his studio. With upscale meat and potatoes fare, it was the ideal place for Walt to grab a quick bite, always at his favorite table #31, right by the big fireplace. The legendary Scottish themed restaurant is L.A.'s oldest continuously operating, same-family-owned restaurant and part of the Lawry's family of restaurants.
